

Who Are the ELKS?

Elks are community.

No matter where you go in the country, an Elks Lodge is right around the corner. With more than 850,000 members and 1,900 Lodges nationwide, Elks are providing charitable services that help build stronger communities.

Elks Lodges bring so much more to their communities than just a building, golf course or pool. They are places where neighbors come together, families share meals, and children grow up.

Elks invest in their communities through programs that help children grow up healthy and drug-free, by undertaking projects that address unmet need, and by honoring the service and sacrifice of our veterans.

CALIFORNIA HAWAII STATE MAJOR PROJECT

Therapy Services for Children

The California-Hawaii Elks Association (CHEA) helps children with disabilities.

This unique program funds 32 paid therapists and preschool vision screeners, hired by CHEMPI, to help disabled children when no other organizations can or will. These CHEMPI therapists and preschool vision screeners travel, sometimes great distances, to help children get the care they need.

ELKS IN ACTION

Investing in communities where Elks live and work

People Services Center (PPSC) recognized early that with Shelter I Place orders many of our residents would suffer from feeling lonely and being isolated from others, so they launched the "You Are Not Alone Program (YANA)". The Petaluma Elks Lodge provided an ENF grant to help expand the program.

The mission of the ENF is to help Elks build stronger communities. We fulfill this pledge by investing in communities where Elks live and work. We provide tomorrow's leaders, our youth, with lifelong skills; help the state Elks associations accomplish their charitable objectives; and fund projects that improve the quality of life in local Elks communities.

"So long as there are veterans, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will never forget them." The Veterans Service Commission takes that pledge one step further, and promises service to our nation's veterans and military members, with a special focus on service to those in need.
